Create new users

If you do not authenticate users from your library management system, you can create them in the Users section of NRE/VDX, if needed.

From the Users menu, select Create.

You can then enter the user information you need for request management. NRE/VDX requires a barcode, surname, location and category. Addresses can be added once the user record is saved.