OLIB Folio Configuration

Course description

This course covers the main configuration features required when transitioning from WebView to Folio. It is intended for librarians and system managers responsible for managing the library OPAC and assumes prior knowledge of OLIB Web.

View a recorded session

View a recorded session (106 minutes)