Why does "INSERT-MISSING-URL" display when creating a citation?

Last updated: Fri, 19 Aug 2022 17:41:24 GMT

Applies to

- WorldCat Discovery

Answer

Some citation styles ask for data we don’t have in a bib record. In those cases, we supply text in the formatted citation indicating data has to be added. Here is an example, record number 793013952:

Additional information

Citations are built by Chegg's EasyBib service. They format the citation based on the style that is requested and the metadata that we send.

Page ID

44112